

I oppose the proposed deregulation.

We need to mandate support of smaller businesses in industries where the larger corporations' size and capital advantages can preclude or diminish sufficient competition from smaller businesses. I believe this is one of those industries.